

NATIONAL DISTRICT ATTORNEYS ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: July 27, 2017

National District Attorneys Association announces new Executive Committee for 2017-2018

ARLINGTON, Virginia – On Sunday, July 16, the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA) elected its new leadership for a one year term. Hennepin County Attorney (MN) Michael Freeman was elected as the new President of the association, while District Attorney Jonathan Blodgett from Essex County, MA was elected as the President-Elect. Immediate Past President Michael Ramos was named the association's Chairman of the Board.

Along with the executive leadership, the following individuals were selected by President Freeman to serve on the association's Executive Committee for the coming year:

Duffie Stone—Solicitor, Bluffton, South Carolina

Greg Totten—District Attorney, Ventura, California

Bill Montgomery—County Attorney, Phoenix, Arizona

Amy Weirich—District Attorney General, Memphis, Tennessee

Sim Gill—District Attorney, Salt Lake City, Utah

Bill Fitzpatrick—District Attorney, Syracuse, New York

Kimberly Overton—Chief Resource Prosecutor, N.C. Conference of District Attorneys, Raleigh, North Carolina

Bob McCulloch—Prosecuting Attorney, Clayton, Missouri

Chuck Spahos—Executive Director, Prosecuting Attorneys' Council, Morrow, Georgia

Dan Conley—District Attorney, Boston, Massachusetts

The National District Attorneys Association (NDAA), www.ndaa.org, is the largest prosecutor organization in the country, representing 2,500 elected and appointed District Attorneys across the United States, as well as 40,000 Assistant District Attorneys.

Contact: Nelson Bunn, Acting Executive Director, National District Attorneys Association (703) 519-1666

###