ASSISTANT PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

The Prosecuting Attorney's Office in Platte County, Missouri—the fastest-growing county in Missouri—is hiring Assistant Prosecuting Attorneys. Applicants must be a current member of the Missouri Bar or another state Bar in good standing.

Job Responsibilities: Represent the State of Missouri in all phases of criminal prosecution, including providing assistance and legal advice to law enforcement officers during investigations, making charging decisions, presenting cases at preliminary hearings and to grand juries, and advocating in court during bond, probation violation, suppression and other hearings, and in bench and jury trials.

Status: Full time with government benefits including paid vacation time, 13 paid holidays, county-paid or low cost employee health insurance premium options, county paid or low-cost vision and dental plans, enrollment in the Missouri Local Government Employee Retirement System (MOLAGERS) and the County Employees Retirement Fund (CERF), county-paid or low-cost long-term disability and life insurance options.

Other Benefits: Minutes from downtown Kansas City, home of the Chiefs and the Royals and the best barbecue in the universe. Go to www.visitkc.com or www.plattecountyledc.com to get the details on Platte County and the Kansas City metropolitan area.

Qualifications: Juris Doctor degree with a valid license to practice law in the State of Missouri or another state. Prosecution experience preferred but not required.

Starting Salary: $52,500 for candidates immediately out of law school, adjusted for candidates with experience.

Deadline for Application: Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
