

The Current and Evolving Landscape of e-Discovery Webinar

Thursday, September 23, 2021 from 2:00pm -3:30pm EDT

Register Now: NAJIS.org

About the Presenters

James Grayson – Deputy, Bernalillo County District Attorney's Office.

James is a graduate of the University of New Mexico School of Law and received a master of laws degree from the University of British Columbia while studying comparative constitutional law. He served as a judicial law clerk to Justices Pamela Minzner and Patricio Serna at the New Mexico Supreme Court. He then worked in the criminal appeals division of the New Mexico Attorney General's Office before becoming a trial prosecutor. He has been with the Bernalillo County District Attorney's Office for the last four years.

Brenda Ray – Section Chief, Wisconsin's Department of Administration Division of Enterprise Technology District Attorney IT Program.

Brenda has over 30 years expertise in information technology. Formerly a developer and project manager in the private sector, Brenda began work at the WI District Attorney IT Program (DAIT) in early 2000. She is a well-respected expert of PROTECT, the District Attorney case management system, as well as the workings of WI DA offices and their associated justice partners. Brenda received her Bachelors of Business Administration degree with an emphasis on Management Information Systems from the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire.

Tom Raynes – Executive Director, Colorado District Attorneys Council

As Executive Director for CDAC, Tom oversees a staff of twenty-one employees, including six attorneys, an eleven person IT department and support staff. CDAC is responsible for the training of the state's nearly eight-hundred prosecutors as well as representing the interests of the twenty-two elected District Attorneys on legislative issues at the state Capitol. Tom is a member of the Executive Board of the National Association of Prosecutor Coordinators (NAPC), sits on the Public Policy Committee of that organization and was the organization's National President for 2018/19. Prior to coming to work for CDAC, Tom worked for Colorado Attorney General John Suthers from 2007 - 2010 as the Deputy Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Justice Section. From 2002 - 2006, Tom served as the elected District Attorney for the 7th Judicial District in Colorado. (Gunnison, Montrose, Ouray, Delta, Hinsdale and San Miguel counties.) Prior to these positions Tom operated a private law firm in Gunnison Colorado. He is a 1993 graduate of Lewis and Clark, Northwestern School of Law in Portland Oregon and a native of Virginia Beach, Virginia.