

Domestic Violence
Multi-Disciplinary Conference
September 30 – October 4, 2019
Phoenix (Mesa), AZ

The National District Attorneys Association invites you to one of the most innovative and thorough domestic violence trainings in the country. Offering the latest information on trauma-informed techniques, best practices, a domestic violence homicide case study, and hands-on trial advocacy, this is a can't miss event for all involved in domestic violence investigation, prosecution, or victim support.

Special Address by Dateline NBC's Josh Mankiewicz

Josh Mankiewicz is a Dateline correspondent based in Los Angeles. He began reporting for Dateline in February 1995, and since then, he has contributed a mix of breaking news stories, news analysis, investigative reports and clever features to the broadcast.

Acclaimed Speakers

Tony Porter
Chief Executive Officer
A Call to Men

Tony is internationally recognized for his efforts to prevent violence against women while promoting a healthy, respectful manhood. Tony is an adviser for the National Football League, National Basketball Association, National Hockey League and Major League Baseball.

Vernetta Cockerham
Survivor

A survivor of domestic violence herself, Vernetta Cockerham speaks nationwide about her experience with abuse, the murder of her daughter, and police negligence that led to a public lawsuit. Vernetta's testimony has made ripples nationwide and is now used to train police.

Casey Gwinn, Esq.
President
Alliance for HOPE International

Casey supports more than 130 open and developing Family Justice Centers in the U.S. and around the world. He has served on the U.S. Attorney General's National Advisory Committee on Violence Against Women and is an expert in the handling of near-fatal strangulation assaults.

Casey Gwinn will be signing copies of his book Hope Rising: How the Science of HOPE Can Change Your Life at the conference!

Special Mass Shooting and Domestic Violence Case Study

Based on a Dateline NBC episode!

Individuals who can benefit from this intensive training include prosecutors, lawyers, and paralegals in local, state, tribal, federal, and military government attorneys' offices who work on behalf of survivors; law enforcement; victim advocates; and victim-witness professionals.

In addition, domestic violence task force members; all court services staff; judges; health & mental health care professionals; shelter & social workers; members of the faith community; school administrators; legislators; policymakers; survivors; protective services personnel; and other professionals and community stakeholders are welcome to attend.

All experience levels are welcome!

Scholarship Opportunities

Seven scholarships are available for this unique, hands-on training opportunity. The deadline to apply is Thursday, September 5. Details available at: <https://ndaa.org/wp-content/uploads/DV-Scholarships-1.pdf>

September 30 – October 4, 2019

Delta Hotels by Marriott
Phoenix-Mesa
200 N. Centennial Way

More Information available at:

<https://ndaa.org/training/domestic-violence-course>

TUITION:

NDAА Member	$670.00
Military Member	$603.00
NDAА Non-Member	$820.00
Military Non-Members	$738.00

Please find more information regarding Special Discounts here.

CLE: Anticipated CLE credits will be 20 hours including 1.5 hours of ethics.

Learn more and register at: <https://ndaa.org/training/domestic-violence-course/>

Special Thanks to Our Sponsors

