

Webinar: Large Sex Trafficking Rings in your Backyard: Human Trafficking Case Study

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Imran Ali

Imran Ali is Washington County's lead human trafficking prosecutor for the East Metro Human Trafficking Task Force. Imran has prosecuted several cases involving large, organized, domestic and international human trafficking operations. Imran helped create a proactive recovery model which has led to the arrests of several traffickers and recovered dozens of victims all over Minnesota. His extensive trial experience has resulted in convictions and significant sentences for child sex predators. Imran is an adjunct professor teaching advanced trial advocacy. In 2016, Imran received the Minnesota Lawyer Attorney of the Year for his work in sex trafficking prosecutions.
