

Don't Miss this Opportunity!

Grants Management Training for District Attorneys

JULY 29-30, 2019

National Advocacy Center
Columbia, South Carolina

What You Will Learn

Each phase of the grant lifecycle presents its own unique set of challenges. NDAA and NCJA are here to help, with a step by step management guide from the pre-award to post-award process.

Interactive group exercises and workshops provide an opportunity for brainstorming, as well as consultation with expert grant writers.

This course will cover:

- How to Design a Program and Write a Proposal
- Title 2 C.F.R Compliance
- Grant Resources and Tools
- Preventing Fraud, Waste, and Abuse of Federal Funds

Testimonials

"The presenters seem to know what is really important. There was a ton of attendee participation and the presenters modified the content to meet the needs of attendees rather than being rigid with the agenda. That was much appreciated!"

- Grants Management Training for District Attorneys, May 2019

"This was an excellent training, and was full of useful and practical information. It will help me in reporting for current grants, and applying for additional ones. ...I would love additional and expanded training in this area. Both trainers were engaging and knowledgeable. Thank you. The networking and sharing of ideas was valuable."

- Grants Management Training for District Attorneys, May 2019

"This may be the most practical training I have ever attended."

- Grants Management Training for District Attorneys, May 2019

Register Today!

Please join the National Criminal Justice Association (NCJA) and the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA) for: Grants Management Training for District Attorneys

- REGISTER HERE
- VIEW THE AGENDA

This two-day training covers grants management and administration, including pre- and post-award processes, principals, functions, 2 CFR Part 200 Uniform Administrative Requirements, cost principles and audit requirements for federal awards.

The training will take place at the National Advocacy Center in Columbia, South Carolina. Participants are encouraged to stay at the Inn at USC in Columbia. Rooms are available for $123 per night plus tax. Reservation information is available on the NDAA website.

Training is $495 per person. We encourage prosecutors and administrators from all regions to attend. The course will be limited to 50 participants to allow for ample opportunities for interaction. If the course is full at the time of your registration please contact Cierra Jenkins to be placed on the waitlist.

About NDAA

The National District Attorneys Association (NDAA) is the voice of America's prosecutors and supports their efforts to protect the rights and safety of the people. For more information about NDAA visit ndaa.org.

About NCJA

The National Criminal Justice Association (NCJA) represents state, tribal and local governments on crime prevention and crime control issues. For more information about NCJA, to become a member, or to bring a grants management training to your agency, please visit ncja.org.