Speaker Biographies

Joseph B. Dallaire

District Attorney
Fairbanks (AK)

Joe Dallaire is the District Attorney in Fairbanks, Alaska, with two offices that serve most of Interior and Northern Alaska across the 4th and 2nd Judicial Districts—an area slightly smaller than the State of Texas. Dallaire graduated from the State University of New York at Albany in 2002 and Western New England University School of Law in 2006. He clerked for the Alaska Superior Court and was hired by the Alaska Department of Law as an Assistant District Attorney in 2007. In 2017, he was promoted to Deputy District Attorney before being appointed as District Attorney in 2019. Dallaire has prosecuted thousands of cases, including serious homicides. He is the former president of the Farthest North Chapter of the Alaska Peace Officers Association and currently serves on the NDAA's Board of Directors.

Jodi Hoos

State's Attorney, Peoria County
Peoria (IL)

In 2019, Jodi Hoos was unanimously appointed as Peoria County State's Attorney, becoming the first woman to ever hold this position. From 2014–2019, she was a Peoria County Resident Circuit Judge and handled civil cases ranging from personal injury to multimillion-dollar medical malpractice claims. Before her Supreme Court appointment to the bench, Hoos was an Assistant State's Attorney for nearly 15 years in the Peoria County State's Attorney's Office, during which she worked in every criminal courtroom covering traffic, juvenile, misdemeanor, domestic violence and felony cases. As a judge and prosecutor, Hoos tried more than 175 jury trials, including 40 murder cases. She received her juris doctor in 2000 from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

Brian Mason

District Attorney, 17th Judicial District
Brighton (CO)

Brian Mason is the elected District Attorney for Colorado's 17th Judicial District, which serves Adams and Broomfield Counties. He was sworn in on January 12, 2021. Mason earned his law degree at University of Colorado Law School. In 2006, then-District Attorney Don Quick recruited Mason to join the District Attorney's Office and he has worked there ever since. Mason has personally prosecuted thousands of cases, including over 100 jury trials, and has helped bring justice to victims of crime from all over the community. His top priorities as District Attorney are keeping the community safe and making the criminal justice system better.

J. Charles Smith, III

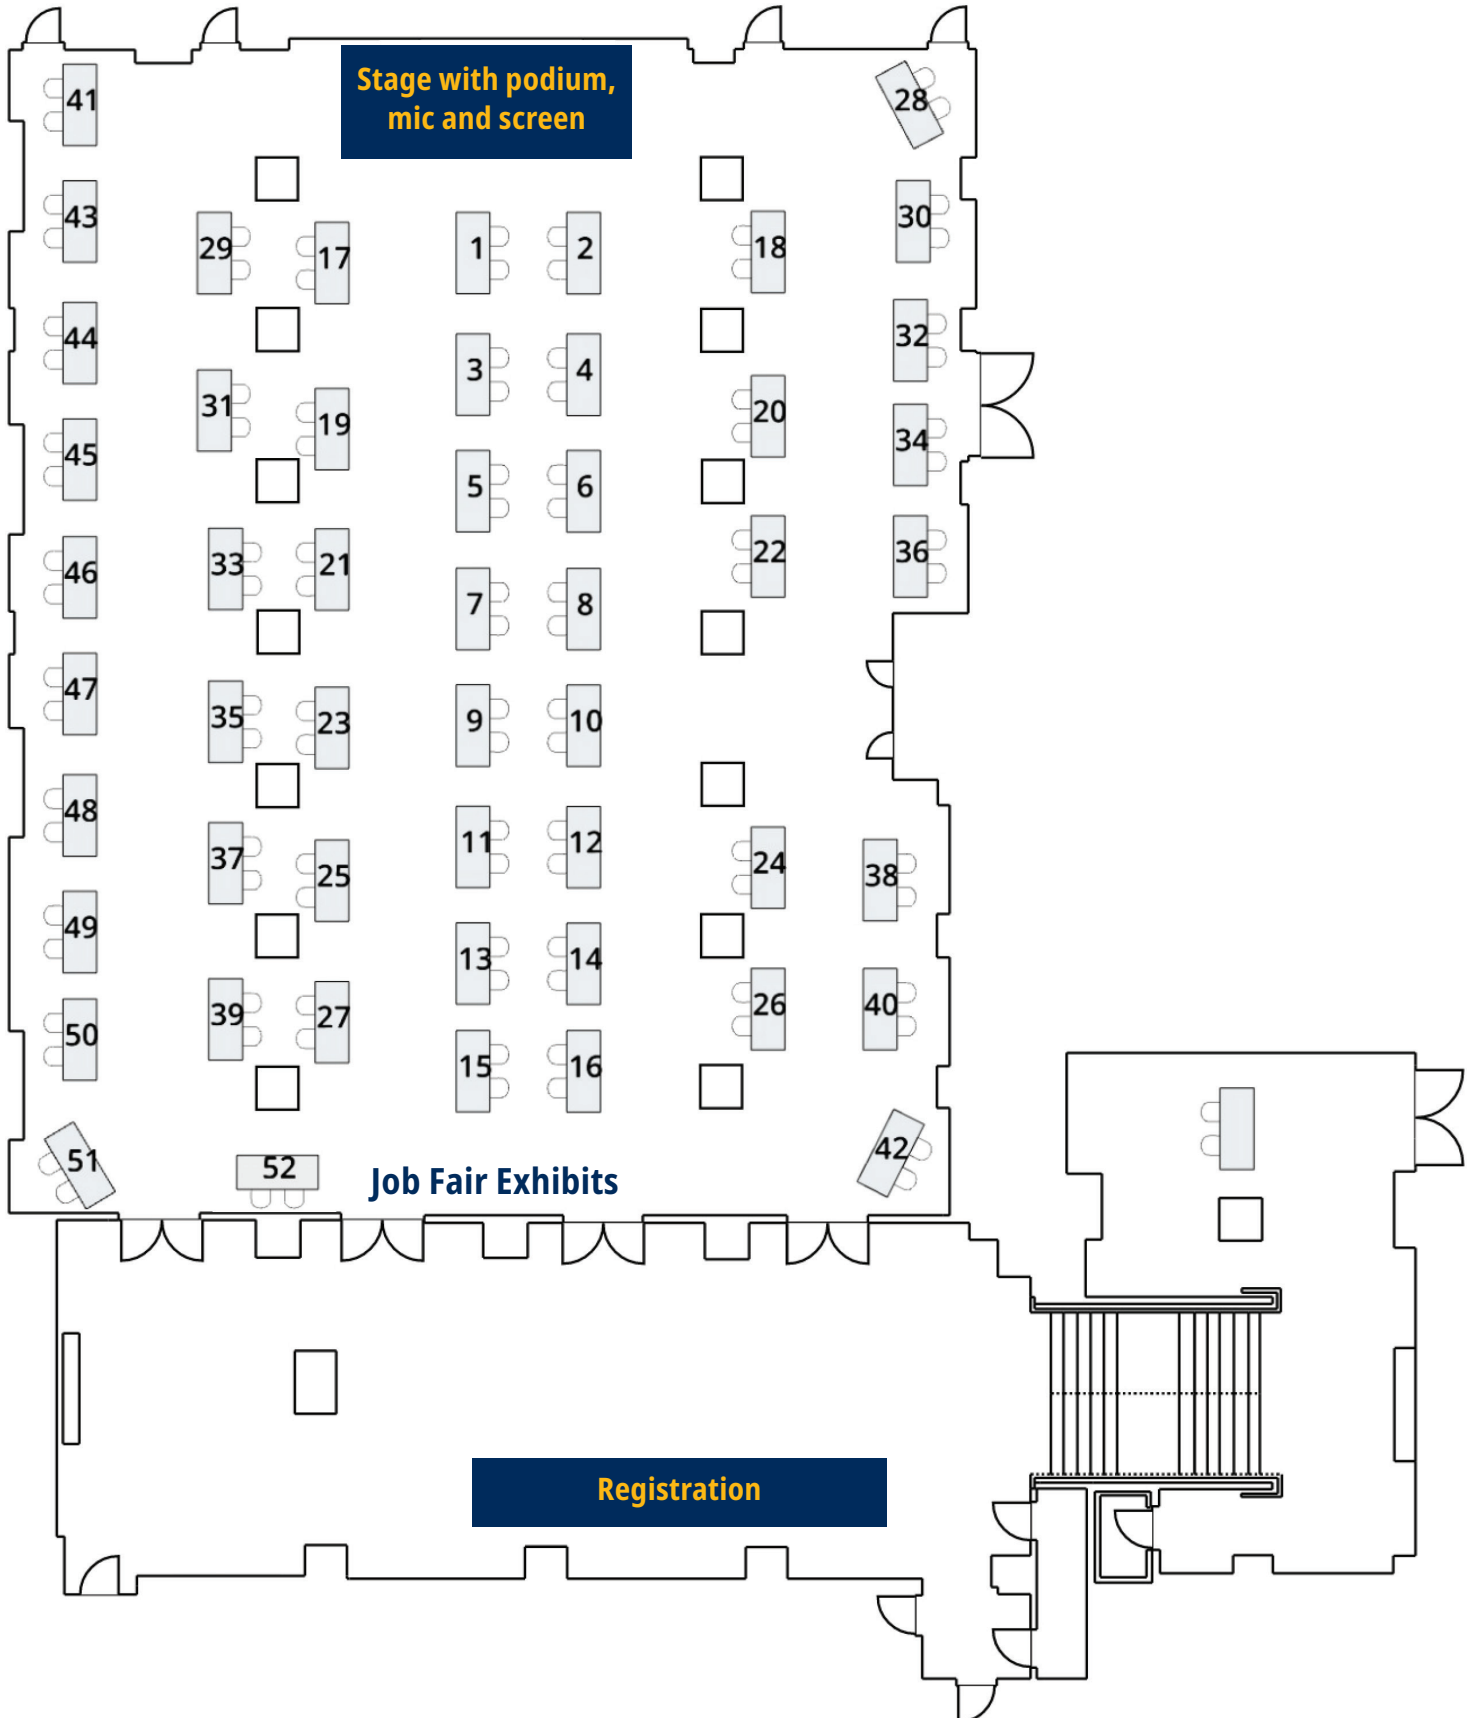

State's Attorney, Frederick County
Frederick (MD)

Elected in 2006, NDAA President J. Charles "Charlie" Smith III is the State's Attorney for Frederick County, Maryland. He is currently in his 5th elected term. He began prosecuting cases in the Baltimore City State's Attorney's Office in 1991. After a brief stint in private practice, in 1998 State's Attorney Smith returned to prosecuting in Frederick County, Maryland serving as the Chief of the Special Victims Unit and as the office's Deputy State's Attorney (First Assistant). He has since prosecuted many of his Office's high-profile violent crime and death penalty cases. Mr. Smith has the distinction of trying the first Computer Crimes case in the State of Maryland (an Internet child sexual exploitation case). He is very involved in the Frederick County and City communities, serving on numerous Boards such as the Frederick Rescue Mission, Faith House, Frederick Hospice, and Child Advocacy Center Boards.

National District Attorneys Association TRIAL ADVOCACY ACADEMY

NDAA is excited to introduce our virtual Trial Advocacy Academy—101 Series, beginning March 19, 2024 with a webinar focused on Analytical Advocacy.

The 101 Series is designed for prosecutors with less than five years of experience to help guide practice, develop skill, create network, and provide resources relating to trial advocacy. Each series topic will include a blog post to NDAA’s general community group, a live webinar which will also be accessible through our on-demand library, and a one-pager providing a summary of the most relevant topic information.

For more information, visit learn.ndaa.org/TrialAdvocacyAcademy.

Join us in Maine in May for the 2024 Wellbeing Resiliency Retreat & Conference!

May 15–17, 2024
Bar Harbor, Maine

This unique in-person three-day event will take place in beautiful Bar Harbor, Maine, and will offer participants opportunities to learn from experts in secondary trauma, resilience building, and peer support. If you are interested in standing up or supporting a wellbeing initiative in your office, this conference will give you the tools to do so. The course will provide CLE credits, teach practical skills, and offer opportunities to engage in activities in Maine's scenic outdoors. Join us and unwind, learn, be inspired, and recharge your prosecutor battery!
