Speaker Biographies

Joseph B. Dallaire
District Attorney Fairbanks (AK)

Joe Dallaire is the District Attorney in Fairbanks, Alaska, with two offices that serve most of Interior and Northern Alaska across the 4th and 2nd Judicial Districts—an area slightly smaller than the State of Texas. Dallaire graduated from the State University of New York at Albany in 2002 and Western New England University School of Law in 2006. He clerked for the Alaska Superior Court and was hired by the Alaska Department of Law as an Assistant District Attorney in 2007. In 2017, he was promoted to Deputy District Attorney before being appointed as District Attorney in 2019. Dallaire has prosecuted thousands of cases, including serious homicides. He is the former president of the Farthest North Chapter of the Alaska Peace Officers Association and currently serves on the NDAA's Board of Directors.

Brian Mason
District Attorney, 17th Judicial District Brighton (CO)

Brian Mason is the elected District Attorney for Colorado's 17th Judicial District, which serves Adams and Broomfield Counties. He was sworn in on January 12, 2021. Mason earned his law degree at University of Colorado Law School. In 2006, then-District Attorney Don Quick recruited Mason to join the District Attorney's Office and he has worked there ever since. Mason has personally prosecuted thousands of cases, including over 100 jury trials, and has helped bring justice to victims of crime from all over the community. His top priorities as District Attorney are keeping the community safe and making the criminal justice system better.

Jodi Hoos
State's Attorney, Peoria County Peoria (IL)

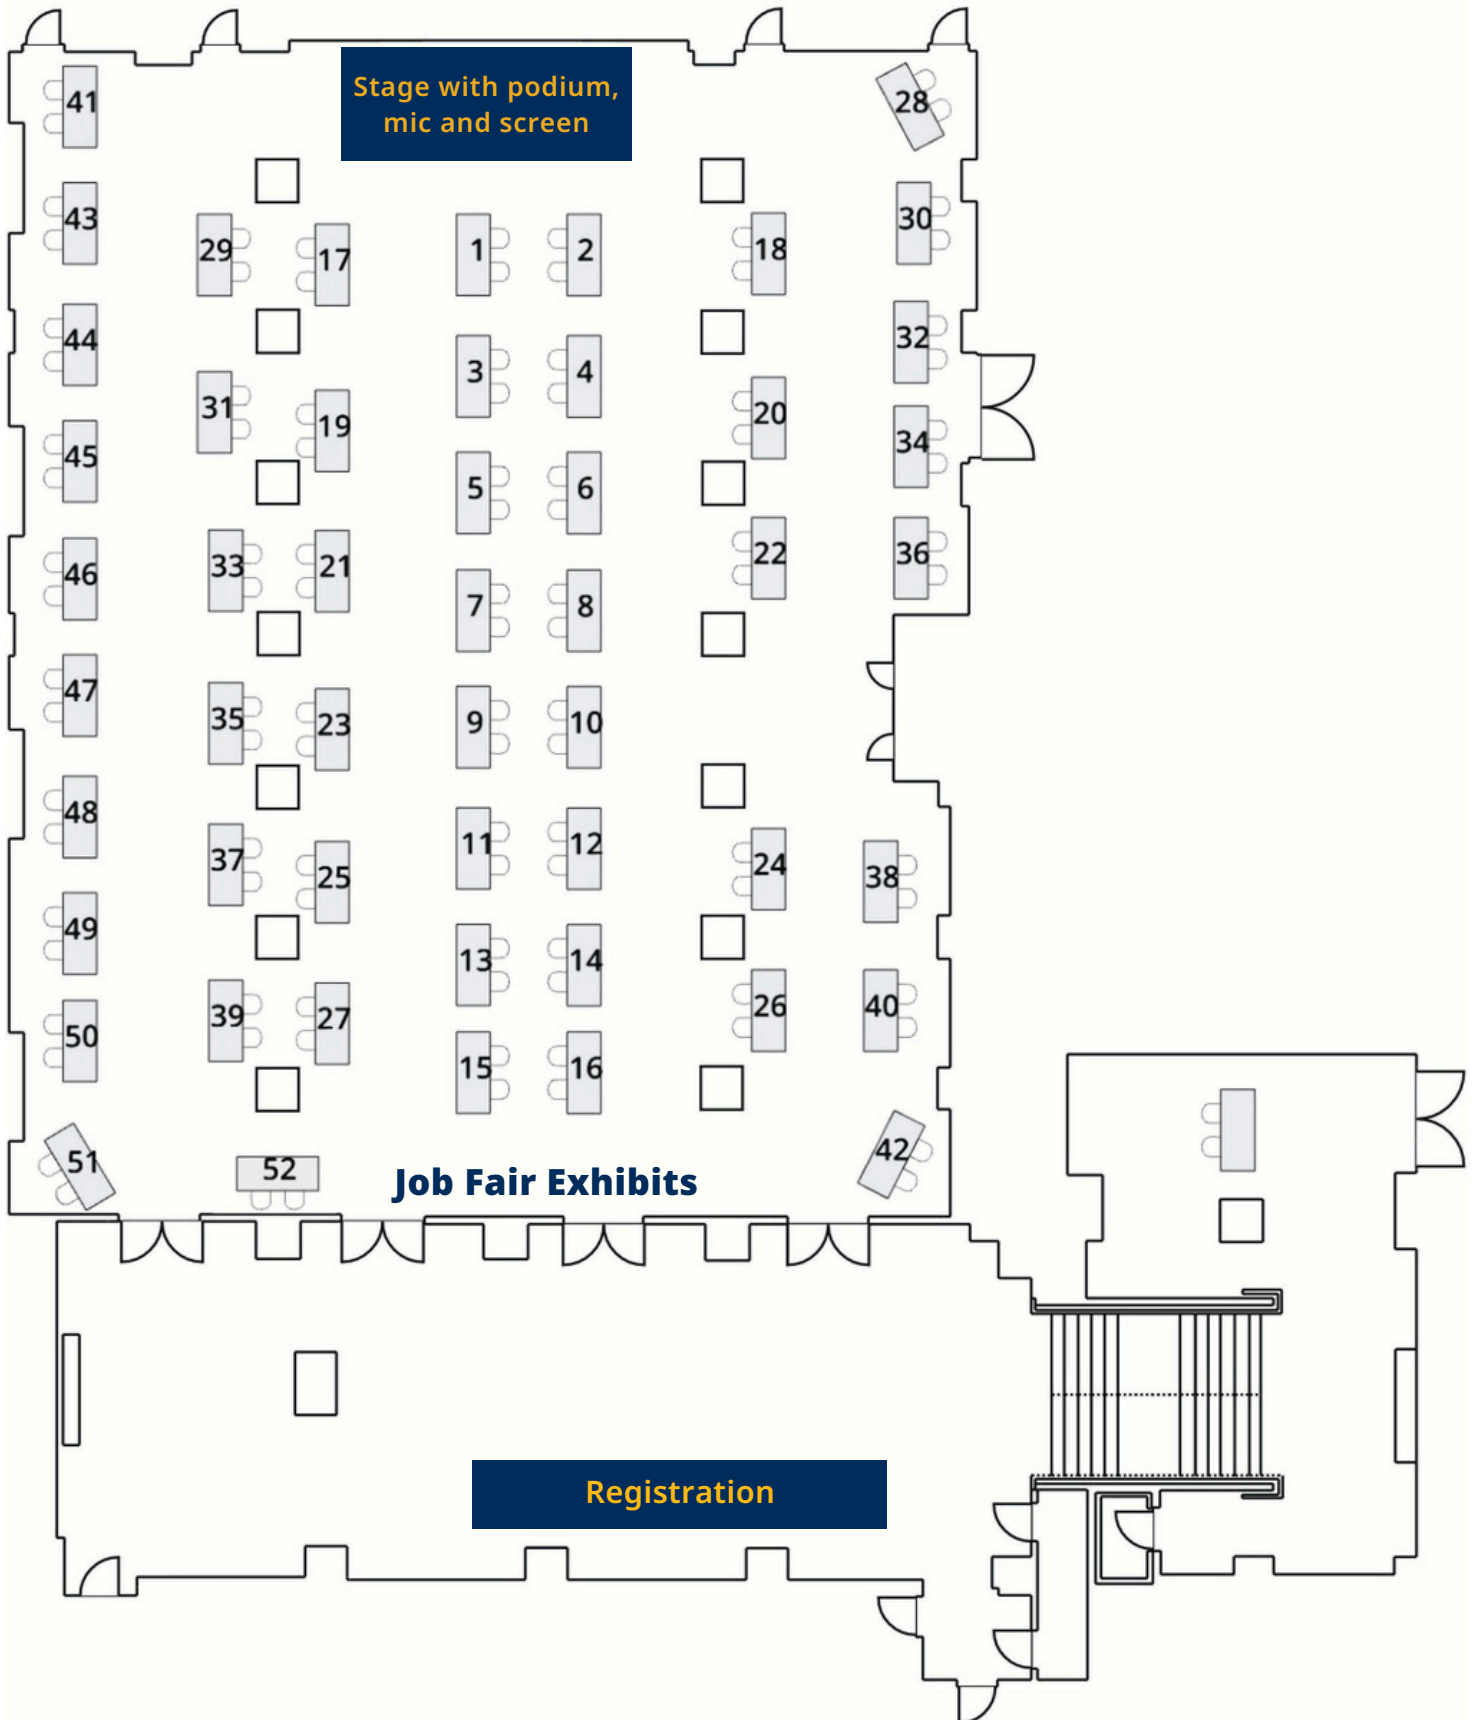

In 2019, Jodi Hoos was unanimously appointed as Peoria County State's Attorney, becoming the first woman to ever hold this position. From 2014–2019, she was a Peoria County Resident Circuit Judge and handled civil cases ranging from personal injury to multimillion-dollar medical malpractice claims. Before her Supreme Court appointment to the bench, Hoos was an Assistant State's Attorney for nearly 15 years in the Peoria County State's Attorney's Office, during which she worked in every criminal courtroom covering traffic, juvenile, misdemeanor, domestic violence and felony cases. As a judge and prosecutor, Hoos tried more than 175 jury trials, including 40 murder cases. She received her juris doctor in 2000 from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.
