

NDAA Membership Guide

ABOUT NDAA

Founded in 1950, the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA) is a national, non-partisan, non-profit membership association that provides training, technical assistance, and services to prosecutors around the country in support of the prosecution profession.

As the oldest and largest association of prosecutors in the country with about 5,000 members, our mission is to be the voice of America's prosecutors and to support their efforts to protect the rights and safety of the people by providing members with the knowledge, skills, and support they need to ensure justice is attained.

NDAA, located in Arlington, VA, represents federal, state and local prosecutors' offices from both urban and rural districts, as well as large and small jurisdictions.

NDAA serves as a nationwide, interdisciplinary resource center for research, training, knowledge building and accountability as it works to promote a fair and equitable administration of justice.

WHY BECOME A MEMBER?

As an NDAA member, you become part of a community dedicated to protecting the rights and safety of the people. NDAA provides opportunities to enhance skills, grow peer networks, and access world-class resources that will help you stay on top of current developments in the prosecution field.

We support America's prosecutors through a variety of programs and resources, including:

- Animal Abuse
- Child Abuse
- Community Engagement
- Data and Technology
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
- Gun and Gang Violence
- Juvenile Justice
- National Traffic Law Center
- Prosecutor Well-being
- Recruitment and Retention
- Trial Advocacy
- Victims' Rights
- Violence Against Women
- Violent Crime Reduction

Contact Kiona D. Gaines at kdgaines@ndaajustice.org or 703-519-1673 to learn more.

NDAA develops and supports enhanced expertise in the program areas of gun violence, juvenile justice, DNA/forensic science, violence against women, child abuse, diversion, traffic law, human trafficking, and much more.

MEMBER BENEFITS

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & EDUCATION

National Courses and Webinars

Members of NDAA get discounted pricing for NDAA training programs, many of which offer CLE credits.

As a NDAA member and the elected/appointed prosecutor in your office, when 3 or more participants from the same office register for a NDAA training, you each will receive a 10% discount.

A 10% discount is also available for active military members and group discounts for multidisciplinary teams for certain courses. Visit ndaa.org/training-courses/ for a full list of upcoming training courses.

Our Annual Conference, The Summer Summit

The NDAA Summer Summit offers educational, information-sharing, and networking tools to ensure prosecutors, and those working in the field, are plugged into the most innovative ideas. With two full days of learning, inspiration, and connection, attendees are equipped with the knowledge and support they need to better serve their communities.

Member-Only Scholarship Opportunities

NDAA, with the assistance of the American College of Trial Lawyers Foundation, is able to provide a limited number of full-tuition scholarships for approved NDAA course tuition assistance.

NDAA is the premier training organization for America's prosecutors bringing innovation to every courtroom in our nation and ensuring every victim's voice is heard. Our national courses bring stakeholders from across the country and from all criminal justice backgrounds together for expert instruction and engaging dialogue.

NDAA conducts and participates in trainings, conferences, and webinars—and trains over 2,000 prosecutors each year.
