

Challenges with Immigration Issues for Victims of Domestic Violence

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

---

Shannon Archer

Shannon Archer is an Assistant County Attorney in the Polk County Attorney's Office in Des Moines, Iowa. Since joining the office in 2010, Shannon has represented the State of Iowa in dozens of jury trials, worked with countless victims, and handled thousands of cases involving domestic violence. Shannon received her undergraduate degree in mathematics from Wartburg College and her law degree from Drake University. Shannon is a faculty member with National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (NIWAP), American University Washington College of Law. She actively trains law enforcement officers, attorneys, judges and advocates nationwide in the area of domestic violence. Shannon lives in Ankeny, Iowa with her husband and their two children. In her free time, Shannon enjoys running, traveling and family trips to the zoo.

---