the 4th Annual

Building a Culture of Women Leaders

THE HISTORIC DAVENPORT HOTEL
10 South Post Street • Spokane, Washington

Sunday, July 15, 2018 • 6:30pm

The Fourth Annual Women Prosecutors Section Gala Dinner is a fabulous evening of cocktails, a three-course gourmet dinner and an enriching presentation. The WPS is the fastest growing section within NDAA and welcomes all members and non-members to attend.

Join us at The Historic Davenport Hotel with its soaring architecture and rich history. It is centrally located and has welcomed film stars, explorers, writers, politicians and other luminaries for more than 100 years. This hotel was the most modern hostelry in the United States when it opened in 1914. It was the first hotel with air conditioning, a pipe organ, a central vacuum system, housekeeping carts and accordion ballroom doors and has earned a prized spot on the National Register of Historic Places.

Your ticket includes two drinks, full dinner of your pre-selected choice, and the presentation. Tables of eight may be purchased for larger groups. A cash bar will also be available.

Please register and purchase your tickets soon as this popular event has limited seating and sells out every year. No tickets will be available at the door. All tickets sale proceeds go to NDAA.

This event is separate from the Summer Summit registration and reservations must be made in advance. We look forward to seeing you there!

Singing the National Anthem this evening

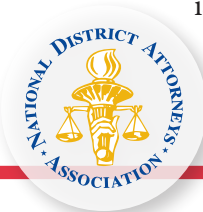

Claire Graham anchors the late night news for KHQ weeknights on Fox First at 10 and KHQ Local News 11 at 11. When she's not sharing the stories of our community, she's most likely at Manito Park with her two rescue dogs, Promo and Static.

Guest Speaker

Alison L. Gregoire has been an Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) for the Eastern District of Washington for approximately eight years and is presently Deputy Criminal Chief and the Indian Country Liaison for the Eastern District of Washington. She is a veteran of the U.S. Army and currently serves as Major in the Army Reserves.
