

The Alaska Department of Law, Office of Special Prosecutions, is recruiting for an attorney specialized in the prosecution of cyber crimes. This position prosecutes computer aided crimes such as: exploitation of children, criminal use of a computer, and consumer protection. This position is located in Anchorage but is a statewide position where you will have a trial caseload and provide assistance to law enforcement and other prosecutors on a statewide level. You will be expected to develop policies and procedures in cooperation with law enforcement to effectively investigate and prosecute cyber crimes. You will assist others prosecuting these crimes with such things as introducing digital evidence at trial, obtaining search warrants for computer devices, and presenting computer forensic experts to a jury. More information and application instructions may be found on our website at: <http://law.alaska.gov/department/jobs.html>.
